ROLLINS
HOMECOMING
1984
I love my Bud
I love my Bud

As the sunsets over Lake Virginia are gradually obscured by the approach of Commencement, the time arrives for this Tomokan to step from his 1917 bark, and, seeking those friends — the tribe of Rollins — who have been awaiting his landing, present, on behalf of the Seniors, a review of the college year just closing.

Although differing in name, The Tomokan is the third of what may be properly called year books of Rollins College. This form of student publication antedates the Sandspur by several months, for it was in June 1984, that the "first exponent of college life at Rollins" was edited under the name of The Demosthenic Demonstrator. While in appearance and size not ostentatious, yet its form was that of an annual. For many years the Commencement Numbers of The Sandspur amirably filled the purposes of a year book, and, in 1910, it ceased to be quarterly or a monthly but was consolidated into an annual. Since changing its form in 1915 to that of a college weekly, The Sandspur, of necessity, has been restricted in scope. To supplement this work, and present in comprehensive form a college memorial is the purpose of The Tomokan. Nor is the name unconnected with the College and State. Tomoka was the first — the Indian — name of our pennisula, while Rollins was the name given to the first college in Florida.

May the 1917 Tomokan carry well the burden entrusted to his care, and may his "happy hunting ground" be located amid happy memories

Here Comes The Train

1885 1985 2085

A one hundredth birthday is something special, a time for great celebration. It is an opportunity to commemorate past achievements and to affirm future promise. A Centennial should be more than just a party or a gush or self-congratulations. It is a time to look back to the mission of the Founders and ask, "Is this what you had in mind?"

One hundred years ago Rollins College began with a dream. Inspired by Lucy Cross, the Daytona school teacher who wrote that she "had a song in my soul for a college in Florida," Rollins was to be "a college through and complete." Dr. Edward Payson Hooker, the first President, agreed and insisted that the new college possess "the very highest standards." As we read today's College catalogue and reflect on the teaching and learning at Rollins today, we must ask Lucy Cross and Dr. Hooker, "Is this what you had in mind?"

Fifty years ago, as Rollins celebrated its Semicentennial, the vision of the founders was expanded. Educational leaders from around the country and the world brought greetings and congratulations. Rabbi Stephen S. Wise said that a college should "help men and women to keep the free and unhampered mind, and to love and follow the beauty of holiness, to think alone as individuals and to dwell together as brothers, for thinking is the business of the individual and togetherness is the business of many." Cordell Hull, the nation's Secretary of State, added his view: "A College should give the student a considerable increased amount of latitude and lee-way and freedom, while at the same time preserving a due sense of responsibility. This balance of freedom with responsibility . . . results in equipping the student . . . to grapple with practical problems of the future." Today, 50 years after our Semicentennial, we must ask Rabbi Wise and Secretary Hull, "Is this what you had in mind?"

Of course, the paramount figure in the sweep of the College's history was Dr. Hamilton Holt. He was the President of Rollins at its 50th anniversary and served the college for nearly a quarter of its history. More than any other individual of influence, Hamilton Holt provided the fulfillment of the Founders' dream and the essence of the Rollins experience today. Fifth years ago, Dr. Holt summarized his vision for Rollins this way: "The wisest way, I believe, is first to provide students with teachers they can respect, admire, love, and therefore emulate, and, second, to help them acquire a philosophy of life or a religion, for upon philosophy and religion depends conduct, and upon conduct depends success in life . . ." Our Centennial invites the question to our beloved "Prexy" "Is this what you had in mind?"

As Rollins celebrates a century of service, our community of learners can answer with confidence, "Yes." Despite all the changes of a century, Rollins has been inspired and sustained by the vision of its founding. Our commitment to the liberal arts be speaks our continuing devotion to the "thorough and complete" education described by Lucy Cross and Edward Hooker: our commitment to democratic community life demonstrates our concern for individual freedom and responsibility; and the humane and personal quality of life at Rollins derives directly from the leadership and example of Hamilton Holt.

Rollins College therefore celebrates its Centennial with pride in its past and with gratitude for the service of generations who have enriched this college with their idealism and with their commitment to the spirit of community. We commit ourselves today to a future worthy of our past, confident that during our next one hundred years, we will affirm that this IS what our founders had in mind.

1885 1985 2085

Like any good birthday party, Rollins' party had a cake. The Centennial Birthday cake was formed in the shape of the Pinehurst building, the only remaining structure from the college's earliest days.

The official cake cutters were (l to r) Lauren Matthews, Class of '86; History Professor, Jack Lane; Bill Biebebach, Class of '70; and President Seymour.

Lauren Matthews, here with President Seymour, is a second generation Rollins student. Her parents are Dan '55 and Deener '52 Matthews.

SENIOR CLASS SONG
Dedicated to Rollins, 1917 by Prof. E.F. Palmer
Music composed by Mrs. Palmer

Years behind us, warmly glowing
Glamored lie in Mem'ry's haze,
Ever stronger, fairer growing
Through the weaving of the days.
Weft and warp of life's design,
This we wove of toil and pleasure
Clean and sparkling, pure and fine.

Blue of Rollins, radiant color,
Sign of faithful courage high,
Weft of life that, — never duller,
All our lives shall underlie,
Gold of Rollins, gleaming, royal, —
Never tarnished, ever bright, —
Sign of honor, stainless, loyal,
Warp we wove with hearts alight.

These the threads that Rollins brought us,
These her colors, these her soul,
These she gave, and, giving, taught us
Clean and true to weave the whole
As a web of canvas waiting
For the needles careful play,
Storied pictures slowly plaiting
O'er its blankness day by day.

Classmates! Pledge we Alma Mater!
Pledge ourselves with purpose true,
Make her glory deeper, greater;
Live her life of gold and blue;
Keep her faith and show her beauty
Through our lives' embroidered scheme,
Interwining threads of duty
With our love-gemmed, shining theme!

"O" What A Team

A Fresh Start

On Tuesday, September 3, 1985 freshman from different parts of the country poured into Rollins to begin Orientation Week. Under the direction of Amy Grieve, the O-team prepared a week that the freshmen will always remember. Check-in was a big day for everyone. Parents left their daughters and sons to start their college life, while freshmen met their roommates. Later that night, freshmen watched "The Breakfast Club" and then posed for their first picture as the "Class of '89". The next event, Playfair, helped the freshmen get to know each other, and made them feel more comfortable.

On Wednesday, everyone journeyed to Wekiva and participated in many funfilled events. The day culminated when freshmen met with their peer advisors and everyone learned to sing the Alma Mater.

Thursday was a more serious day as it was filled with placement tests. After dinner everyone went to Club to meet the Rollins organizations. Later that night, "Bits and Pieces" was performed in the Annie Russell Theatre. Freshmen were especially surprised to see Dr. Seymour on the stage performing and entertaining the audience.

Friday was a day of workshops. The diversity of topics included anything from "Handling Stress . . ." to "Intro to Computing". That night a slide show helped the freshmen to reminisce about the past week. These were the very first memories of the "Class of '89".

On Saturday, the last day of Orientation Week, freshmen went to the beach. It was a fun day full of relaxation in the sun. The big finale, the All College Dance, allowed Rollins students to get together with friends — a foreshadowing of the memories ahead.

All photos compliments of the O-Team

Students Earn An Education

Making Cents

Work study is an integral part af mast college campuses. It pravides students with a jab that carries respansibility, yet enables them ta cape with the pressures af academic life. For many Rallins students, the maney they earn during wark study is used far pure enjayment; hawever, far athers, the maney earned becomes part af a student's tuitian.

The wark study experience is an invaluable way to learn new skills, establish business cantacts, and make new friends. It wauld nat be uncamman ta see wark study students shelving boaks in the library ar taking tickets at the Annie Russull Theatre. The haurs a student cammits ta this jab can vary. They may elect ta work ten haurs a week when their laad is extremely light ar a student may wish ta wark less as the pressure af college increases. Na matter how many haurs a student shauld chaase ta work each week, the key ward is "flexibility." Wark study supervisars are usually willing ta arrange a student's weekly haurs araund his ar her particular schedule.

College wark study is apen ta all freshmen, saphamares, juniars, and seniars. Many students begin one particular wark study jab as a freshman and keep that same jab far faur years that they are at Rallins. Sharon Christensen

Octoberfest

On the afternoon of Friday, October eighth, the students of Rollins College gathered together at Harper-Shepard field to celebrate the 1985 Octoberfest. It was the end of the week, classes were over and everyone was in the mood to party. Octoberfest is a time for students from all over campus, to come together relax and enjoy music, Budweiser and traditional german food. The fare included hotdogs, pretzles and potato salad.

Aftr dinner there were several games, among the most popular was the ballon toss which contained a group of approximately thirty couples. Another popular contest was an all-fraternity beer drinking contest that was as enjoyable to watch as it was to participate. The whole evening was enjoyed by all and ended at dusk.

Living Like Home
Unique Dorms

Among the many new traditions begun this year at Rollins, the first year of the second century, was the dorm room judging contest. On October 18th, the Residential Life sponsored contest took place with the judging in two categories, Environment and Construction. Contestants could enter their room in either or both categories. In viewing over thirty rooms in all, one could see the uniqueness of the Rollins student.

President Thaddues Seymour was on hand at the end of the judging to present the awards. First place went to Dave Bickford and Jeff Hemion, whose room is located in Elizabeth Hall. Their room was an extraordinary use of space. Their beds were stored under a raised platform and in a pull out sofa that left plenty of storage space for the other essentials. When asked about their room they remarked, "We live like this at home, why can't we live like this here!"

When The Works All Done

Two Flights Up

Downtown Winter Park, affectionately known as "The Avenue", becomes an extension of Rollins College around eleven o'clock every night. After a long day of classes and studying for several hours in the library or dorms, even the most diligent student needs to get away. Just a short walk across Fairbanks Avenue propels a Rollins student back to the real world and one of the most popular night spots in Central Florida. The ten blocks cater to almost any appetite, from four-star dining to dancing, from a variety of ice cream shops to fast food pasta.

A popular destination for the distinguished student is Two Flights Up. Although the perfect place for a quiet, intimate dinner, you will find most of your friends up there chatting over drinks or at the bar watching a game on T.V. A must to initiate a student into the true spirit of things, is the Two Flights Down. One shot of Tequila, one shot of Southern Comfort, and one shot of Triple Sec, make it more than just a drink, it makes it a college experience. The trick is making it back down the two flights of stairs.

On those nights that you just have the munchies or a test the next day, one of three ice cream shops or, the now famous, pink 7 — Eleven become more then just shops, they become havens of satisfaction.

But what do you do at Rollins, Dear?" asks Mom, over and over again. A mumbled, "Just stuff", doesn't seem to satisfy her curiosity. We study, of course, and attend classes, but what else does a generic Rollins student do with his or her free time? To the end of answering this question, I have compiled The First Ever, Semi-Complete, Unabridged, and Possibly Slanderous, Rollins College Dictionary of Things To Do.

ATTEND CLASSES — (V) It is advisable to do this at least once a week, even if only to remain in 'academic good standing' so as not to be asked to return home pre-maturely to sub-zero temperatures and parents.

BAILEY'S (GO TO) — (V) The bar to party at. It has the Croc Club conveniently attached. Bring ID.

CAROUSE — (V) Any evening pasttime except, of course, Study. See Rosie O'Grady's and Two Flights Up.

CHECK MAIL — (V) Checking the mail carries two guarantees — 1. on the days you get no mail, your roommate will get an armful, 2. The check from your parents will get lost.

DRINK — (V) Although technically illegal for many students, sources indicate that drinking may be occurring both on and off campus. This has yet to be proven conclusively.

HUNT FOR VALIDINE — (V) An extraordinary amount of time is spent daily wondering if the card is under the bed, in the wash, or still lent to the freshman who looks like you.

ORDER PIZZA — (V) Dominos provides nightly entertainment. If you haven't ordered the pizza yourself, there is a never-ending stream of delivery people wandering lost in the halls to direct.

SUNBATHE — (V) Zonker Harris would have found his Valhalla at Rollins, not to mention hundreds of compatriots also hunting 'the perfect tan'.

WASH CLOTHES — (V) Eventually you will have to do this. To make life easy on yourself simply throw everything in on cold. The people who wrote the back of the Tide box never did their laundry at a college.

Halloween

As you entered the Student Center the first thing that you noticed was the thick, cool mist filling the room. The dim lights only added to the air of mystery. It was Halloween. The mailboxes were aged with cobwebs complete with spiders. The place was filled with music provided by the D.J.'s. It was a time to get dressed up in your craziest costume and party, dance and enjoy the night. The Rollins Halloween Dance provided just the atmosphere.

This dance brought out the true 'characters' on campus. We had everything there from a werewolf to a chicken. There even were a few zombies who I don't think realized that they had come to a party. They must have had a test the day before or something. At midnight the judging on the costumes began. First place went to a tall, green zombie when he finally realized where he was. The chicken came in second.

"Where It's At"

Susan Gurris, Rob Beau

Here, on the Rollins College campus, the student center seems to be the center of the college. Early in the morning, students congregate outside the student center to study before their classes. Around noon, the student center becomes filled with students who struggle with combinations to get the mail from their boxes. Some pick up small care packages from the Post Office or mail letters that they have finally written after having put them off for so long.

Besides containing the Post Office, the student center serves as a place where students can just sit and lounge, read, or do their homework between classes. In addition, this building is a message center where posters, ads, and fliers announce all upcoming events.

This building also functions as a place to hold parties, concerts, and dances. After the sun goes down, it becomes a place where people can relax, dance and celebrate.

Perhaps the most important aspect of the student center is the Pub. Beneath the building lies the Pub that features a huge T.V. screen, good food, a popular pool table and a great bar. All in all, the student center is "Where It's At."

"A Thankful Ooompaloompa"

Not much longer than a hundred years ago, Willie Wonka built his famous chocolate factory. It was a place full of chocolate-covered inspirations where Ooompaloompas worked day and night to bring a little sweetness into the otherwise sour lives of the city-folk there. Willie Wonka's factory expressed his hope and belief in man and man's worth. With the vision and creativity of many Willie Wonkas, we now have our own chocolate factory, the Olin Library.

Though everlasting gobstoppers may not be allowed through the front door, the library will be a place to taste the ancient recipes of life simmering alongside rapidly boiling modern technologies. It will be a place to study hard, day and night; a place to share our insights and dreams; a place to develop ways of improving our world. Most of all, the library will be a constant inspiration breathing new life onto our campus. We are grateful for this gift, and for the hope and trust it symbolizes in us and our worth. Chris Thorpe '86

One of the most popular places on campus, at any time of the year, is near water. Behind Rose Skillman Hall, Affectionately known as Beans, lies two of Rollins most prized social and recreational spots, the pool and the lake. Whenever the sun is shining, one can be assured that this popular course will be attended. The pool is more than just a social spot, for it also serves as an environment for discussion of important social questions while receiving the professional tan that Rollins is known for. The only thing that makes the pool more enjoyable is that it is located on beautiful Lake Virginia.

Lake Virginia provides a miriad of activities for both enjoyment and physical education credit. Some of the more popular lake sports include windsurfing and waterskiing both of which are offered year round.

"A Look At World Events"

During the Rollins College centennial year, many notable events occurred world wide. Throughout this year, South African blacks held daily protests in opposition to Apartheid. Although these protests were usually peaceful, many also resulted in riots. (Bottom right) 1985 was also known as the year of the Boss, as Bruce Springsteen conducted his world tour. (Middle Right)

In June, a Trans World Airway jet was hijacked in Athens, Grece. Hostages were held for 17 days and one American hostage was murdered. (Right) In September, Mexico City suffered two major earthquakes in two days. The first earthquake measured 8.1 on the Richter Scale, the second measured 7.5. (Below) Also in September, Cincinnati Red's Pete Rose broke Ty Cobb's hit record. (Far right) Also during this year, was the hijacking of the cruise liner Achille Lauro. After surrendering, the Egyptian government promised the terrorists that they would be returned to the P.L.O. However, the hijackers were intercepted by American jets as they were flown out of Egypt and returned to Italy to stand trial.

Quiet Spots "Just For You!!"

Although the majority of the Rollins College Campus remains active throughout the day, there are a few places where one can go to get away from it all. Hidden in the most nondescript places, these quiet spots are havens where one can go to study, relax or talk.

Some of the more poplar places on campus include: Ward Hall's balcony, the gazebo behind Cornell, McKean's lakefront and the library's reading tower. There are more quiet spots. Some are more obvious than others. Wherever these places are, they conceal a serenity that many seek at one time or another.

We cheer the baseball team with it. We go to parties because of it. It once inspired Stanley Pope Heckner and Rose Mills Powers to write our Alma Mater. No, it isn't boredom, bread, or beer. "It is spirit . . . Rollins Spirit. Where would we be without it? What would we be without it? Imagine students dully loafing around on Fox Day, listlessly watching "The Grinch . . . " at Christmas, sitting mute at a Soccer game. Horrible! Quick! Show your spirit! Grab a Rollins beerstein! Put on your Rollins sweatshirt! Grab your Rollins keychain and go put that Rollins sticker on your rear window! Go to that Rollins party in the Student Center. Remember — it's all in the name of spirit. Cheer on the Soccer team. Go to the winter formal. Join R.O.C. Write for the Sandspur. Show your pride in Rollins. Show your Spirit!!!

Physical Education "Its More Than Academics"

Rob Champion

Physical Education at Rollins is more than P.E. classes, it is the process of toning one's body and mind. Rollins offers a wide variety of P.E. classes ranging from water sports to varsity competition. Windsurfing is popular among students and Tae Kwon Do is beginning to catch on. P.E. goes beyond the credit courses though, it is a familiar site to see several students toning their bodies passing a football on the library lawn or playing a game of volleyball behind McKean. It is hard to explain to friends at other colleges that you are still required to take classes in physical education but what is even harder is explaining to them that you are taking them for the sheer enjoyment of it.

Kappa Kappa Gamma, Delta Epsilon Chapter at Rollins is the oldest Kappa chapter in Florida, as it was founded in 1932. Kappa, being a national sorority has well over 100 strong chapters in America and Canada with new chapters being established every year. Kappa is a diverse group of young women with the common interests in friendship, sharing and growing through various activities all year. We are involved with activities on and off campus with regards to academics, philanthropies, sports and social functions. We strongly depend on our older graduated Alumni Kappa sisters who help us in our programs throughout the year. This year our goal has been to strengthen our relations with the Administration and the Rollins Community by doing civic duties and produce an even stronger group with the support of the school.

The Kappas at Rollins are still out of hand . . . We'll now share with you where we stand . . . Billings . . . Since the formation of NCM in 1970, Rollins has offered an alternative sorority lifestyle in the Greek system. We are not a national sorority, therefore, we offer a more informal atmosphere. We feel this makes room for more individualism among our members. We do, however, function like national sororities in some ways: we are a member of the Panhellenic Council, we participate in formal rush, we occupy prime housing, we hold weekly meetings, we are involved in many philanthropies projects, as well as throwing many traditional parties! We stress "quality, not quantity" making each member realize the importance of contribution to our organization. We feel NCM provides the friendship and togetherness the Greek system strives to achieve. — Alisan Riker

KAPPA ALPHA As the phoenix rises from ashes, so it has been with the Alpha Psi chapter of the Kappa Alpha Order. Soaring ever higher, the men of old KA have learned to channel their great resources of wild energy toward constructive activities, while evermindful of their natural ability to perform graceful loops and daring dives. These death defying knights now fly their colors of Crimson and Old Gold on the western front, once again enjoying the sunny shores of Lake Virginia. After 59 years of existence the future looks more promising for the oldest existing fraternity at Rollins. Excelsior!

Dave "Adalf Marrisan Zarou was a man to see during his freshman year with his long hair and his pierced ear. Although his early years were smEllie, he never failed to rinse off in the shower. After an enlightening stay in Australia he returned a born again kiss ass only to reform the Mansionless RAPclub. A Most Worshipful Grand Master! Saveria "Rhades Scholar" Flemma weighed in at 235 lbs. to jello wrestle with the musketeers. Countless years of tears and celebacy waiting for his sweet Booboo to come, but when she came she went, leaving him a broken and withdrawn soul; but he didn't Kare . . . he runs. Parker "aver a billian served" Ray is a man of competition, from Jello wrestling to G-String King contests to Keg Bowling, he's proved himself worthy of recognition as a horse among men. Now he's driving the Bus, while keeping his Margarita on ice. Jae "Magic" Grant entered Rollins as the 2 pump king, but has since progressed to 3 and 4 p's. Recently we've been unable to monitor his progress because he's been in a Tini niche; but word has it he's gonna win a scholorship! Daug "Paker Face" Davis, the tight end from Alabama, spends his off seasons Powerlifting in Europe, but always on top of the married life back home, he's forever dedicated to his pregame warmups. Bobby "I shauld've gane Phi Gay" Coak had thoughts of transferring, but reconsidered upon Bev and Sandy's request. Unfortunately Cookie ain't gettin' any Nookie. Mike "Mr. Respansibility" Langnecker has been seen hanging around the old folks home, not to mention the Phi Gay house with the K.Y Borlowed for a year (what a mistake) but Shortie shares everything. Now he's into Spicolli, Merril Lynch, and the Dead. Siwestri Dan, the waterbed man keeps his New Smyrna home for ladies to ran. Did Q-Tip and now drives a Ferrari — What a dick! Scott "Whipped ta the bane" Williams began his college career by puking in Fraser's draw, then he found Club Med and became a whore. Rides bikes by day and Suzi by night, with Angie between the Chesire delight. Goodbye Scooter we'll miss your hand through the window routine. Matt "Wha's Afraid?" Miller came to us from Roanoke . . . nice history. Spends most of his time throwing bad one liners at any available ear, hangs with sophomores, but enjoys his quiet time, he's got the spear, Miller Spear. Oscar "Prablem Child" Williams, def. Heroshima baby, a fungus found under rocks. Fantasy: to be Mad Max. Favorite Movie: Road Warrior. Hobbies: Ugly Chicks, wreckless driving, and leather. Favorite book: "Successful Campaigning." Hell Boy! Jahnny "Gatta Smake?" Weithas came to us from the north, with regard to chicks . . . he slides back and forth. Breaking hearts here and pledging TKE there, ask him about it, he really don't care. Only a social member would do Sandy T. Chris "you gotta be Psycho to ride the Bus" Zelinski; Mike "I remember the good old single days" Maura; Jon Jerry "Third try" Harne; Randy "Anarchy" Perry; Mark "I love my rigalbitties" Daley; Beaufart, Elmer "Used car salesman of the month" Chambers; Frank "I never wet my bed" Greene; Chris "944 West Park — Cheese Ave." Chesire; Rab "Who?" Lauren; Marc . . . Shapira; Jahn "Golden Gloves" Lewis; Reece "The Beast" Thompsan; Mike "I won't Saab over AJ[2]" Schwartz; "I hate" Ken Bailey; John "Darkside of the moon" Bowden; Keith "That's out of order" Buckley; Nick "But I've got a job" Gilman; Steve "I don't cross my brothers" Kelley; Ajit "How do you pronounce your name?" Korgaodar; Dan Krulewitchberg; Steve "Princeton, Georgetown, O'Leary U." Luttrell; Ovind "S.S." Klausen; Tony "The Snake" Knight; Nick "Can't wait till my brother leaves" Flemma; John "Silent Giggalo" Pellex; Barrett "I now share Shamu" Canfield; Carl "I wrecked my Beemer" Alexander. Long live: Schwillers, Boxers, Daytona, Cuervo, Ray Bans, The Bus, Cellar Dwellers, The Magic Kingdom, Showers, Fast Cars and Fast women, Skinhead face down in the gutter, The Pitt, Dr. B.L.'s hair piece, Boxed Lunches, The Beach, Bloodies, Morning Missiles, Breakfast heads, The Diner, B2, the Guru, Stevie D. (7 year man), Chris Cuttler — who left us to be a gardner, Mark "Fred" Edwards — wherever he may be, and of course . . . the Shades. Special thanks to Dr. Nassif, our newest brother. We'd like to mention our pledges, but everyone knows you can't put Whale Dung on paper.

CHI PSI: As you go to Hooker Hall and through our front door, they're are many great stories you can hardly ignore. We'll start with off with Wolfie, probably the best athlete in the land, but when he took our C.B. all they discussed was her background. Next I'm not sure if the Amazon and Oranges stories are true, but Del-Heads' still a proud member of the D.F.U., his roomie is C-Dog who's a real redneck, who would've been thrilled if Lissa gave him a peck. Our prez is D.L. who's bed is always shakin', the only problem is that its always foul bacon. Our buddy The Nut lives over in Rex Beach, and of his foulness we don't know about The Amazon and a brand new Chi-O. Then off-campus lives Ian Shama who never committed a sin, until his glorious relationship with a chich they call fin. Our man Guido what happened to your date at the Mortician Ball. Now to Remote Control Willie who's on a softness roll, and at a touch of a button he's under Woodies control. There's a man called The Slab that we all seem to doubt gets off all their clothes and somehow blanks out. Across from Slab House, far a hit of a doob. Let us not forget about Train, with so much Baseball skill. The only problem is that he's looking for his first confirmed kill.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON: With a new porch and a new paint job, we once again find it necessary to tour the TKE mansion . . . Ebby, the President, is always with his NCM; on her finger we wonder when we'll see a gem. Scooter, our money man, decided not to play it cool; rather than staying with us, he's off to another school. Then there's Flaco who's always with Meg; he'd rather be with her, than with us enjoying a keg. Up the stairs, we move onto the second floor. "I never do anything" Shaggy once said, but what were those objects found next to his bed? In his old room Tom chose to stay; he always welcomes anyone, but what about Mr. Roy? When it comes to sex, Baz won't pay a fee; he'd rather just pray on December one-three. While Brian still looks for a place for his H-ter; he'll have to rely on the ole six-shooter. We never know what Phil does in the dark; but we swear one night Daddy heard a loud bark! Georgy Porgy, hair spiked high; when was the last time he had a piece of pie? Way out in Denver, Bauster spends a summer day; but now up the slope, the snow makes its way! Jeffro and Jim cry innocence with a plea; but their positions in football seem natural to me! Just like Jay's favorite Texan named Sandy; to him those wideloads are just fine and dandy! Finally settled next door was Mr. Goodrich; finding a room for him was quite a B-CH! Scott's new bacon carries the name Beth; if she ever catches him, it means certain death. Dave really hates to hang out with bums; he hates all his nicknames 'cause "Huh, his friends call him Drums". Now we ascend to the third floor. Tom S. is one real critical chap; but when it comes with red hair, its possibly CL-P! When it comes to athletics, Bakes likes to bitch, but when it come to the formal, he'd rather fight than swich. Then, Wally is a worldly man; but when it comes to women, it's right out of the can. Marcus, the stud sounded like Flipper; the day he got his -- caught in his zipper! One of the pledges has the name Dave; we wonder, if ever, he'll come out of his cave. Now, we take a hike off campus . . . When it comes to dedication, Barney won't slough; but we think he'd rather stay home, and tend to his M-ff!! Although these two guys are real assets to TKE, Randy and Dean really like it Greek. One group we can't forget to mention at all, are our dear little sisters . . . YOU'VE MADE IT A BALL!!!

Being the Editor of the 1986 yearbook afforded me the opportunity to be President of the large campus corporation known as the Tomokan. Like most businesses, its operation was not always a smooth one, but learning to work with people was an invaluable experience. The Tomokan involved me in literally every aspect of Rollins life. It enabled me to meet people that I otherwise might never have known. I am grateful to them for enriching my life in a very special way.

I hope that 100 years from now a typical Rollins student will be able to pick up this first "second century" Tomokan and see life as all of you would want it to be depicted. It was my intent to illustrate the Rollins community in this abstract manner . . . for this corportion is resplendent with the dreamers and doers of Rollins second century.

I would like to extend a special thanks to Lynn Warmack who was always there to understand without really understanding, Ober Tyus for his help with the all-campus picture, Ruth Weiss in the S.G.A. office for all her help and PhotoPresto that developed all our color pictures. Finally, I would like to thank everyone who cared enough to make the Tomokan such a great company.

The yearbook staff is proud to present the 1985-86 Tomokan. It is this annual that begins the second hundred years of Rollins existence. It is our hope that future editions of the Tomokan will continue with the vast history and culture that have made Rollins an outstanding academic institution.

A big thanks to Sharon, Rob, Billy, Liz, Mobry, Celia, Scott and everyone who helped on the book.

1985-86 Rollins College Volleyball Squad

The team that won the College of Charleston Invitational, took second place in the West Georgia and Stetson University tournaments, and fourth at the Tray State Tourney was decimated by graduation. They were in the midst of rebuilding both strength and experience. The reconstruction could have been detrimental to the success of this years team. However, a host of fine freshman together with our returning players, made for a strong, determined, and devoted season.

With nothing to lose and everything to prove and to gain, the Lady Blue and Gold played a challenging, exciting and successful season. The Lady Tars jumped out to a 7-2 record before the start of conference play. At the College of Charleston Invitational, where the season began, the Lady Tars polished their seven-two beginning by capturing second place title in the Lady Cougar Tournament. But, that was only the beginning.

Highlighted by competing against regional and nationally ranked teams the schedule was quite demanding. Besides powerhouse Sam Houston University (6th in the nation), Mississippi University for women, University of North Alabama, and Monticello University, the Tars also met and defeated, three times, Division I arch rival University of Central Florida, and played in what many consider one of the toughest conferences in NCAA Division II volleyball, the Sunshine State Conference.

The young team often proved to be a crowd pleasing group. Led by powerhouse Tanya Collins and Colleen Nagy, the Lady Tars spiked their way to a winning season.

The Lady Blue and Gold also featured a line-up to compliment Collins and Nagy at the net and in the back court; senior Debbie Sokolowski; sophomores Dana Gibhart, Anne Bolling, Sam Burchfield and Kathy Barma; and freshmen Pam Hopkins and Kathy Fields. First year players Stephanie Glance, Janet Phillips and Kim Mayfield were a talented trio, while sophomore Nancy Parkeer — greatly missed — was hampered with a shoulder injury. The Lady Tars brought home a compiled record of 23-18 in addition to capturing two tournament titles; previously mentioned second place at the College of Charleston and third place at West Georgia College. Along with these prestigious accomplishments, the Lady Blue and Gold maintained a sixth place ranking throughout the season for the entire South Region (six states included). And finally, at the close of the season, the squad not only placed third in the Sunshine State Conference tournament, but three of its team members were selected to the Sunshine State Conference team; first team all Conference Colleen Nagy and Tanya Collins and all conference honorable mention Kathy Fields. Collins was also named to the Conference all-tournament team.

Although the 1985 season is history, the success of the Lady Tars can be attributed to an effective and supportive coaching staff, our loyal fans, and players that are devoted to the unique game of volleyball.

The 1985-86 Men's Basketball season promises to be an exciting one for the Rollins College Blue and Gold Tars and their fans.

The team has a nice blend of new and familiar faces this year. Jimmy Silcott, last year's 2nd leading rebounder and 3rd leading scorer, also led the team with 55% FG shooting, should be one of the top conference players. All-American Candidate Scott Kinney was last year's leading scorer and had the team's highest free throw percentage as well as being named to the 1st Team All Sunshine State Conference and All South. Scott has the unique opportunity of becoming one of Rollins' all-time leading scorers, he is currently ranked ninth. The juniors of the team include Brent Baird, Larry Garner, Jeff Ritter and Don Scheel, all of whom are good all-round athletes with good talent to contribute to the ball club. The sophomores of the team include Curt Fiser, Troy Kissinger, and Jeff Wolf. The team is rounded out by a strong freshman corp. Todd Murphy, Troy Bellamy, Greg Eckstein and Dan Wolf come up from the high school squads with top honors in their division. These young men ensure the continuation of a strong men's basketball team at Rollins.

The Rollins Blue and Gold Tars are not without their key player, their fans, and the Rollins fans are behind their team 110%.

1985-86 Rollins College Women's Basketball Team

The 1985-86 Rollins College Lady Tars are stronger at every position, particularly in the areas of quickness and height. This year's team will, however start out young and inexperienced.

Returning players include tri-captains, Cindy Blocker, Hope Read, Mary Johnson along with Linda Trimble and Monica McNeil.

The Lady Tars are strengthening its depth in every position as they bring in seven new players. Kirsten Dellinger, Kim Tayrien, Doyne Calver, Eileen Tobin, Gina Solano, Kim Erwin, Jerri Feree are the new faces and are threats despite their inexperience. The shooting ability and quickness of junior, Cindy Blocker and junior, Linda Trimble are the strength for the Lady Tars. Senior Hope Read poses as the strength at the post position with scoring and rebounding. Sophomore, Mary Johnson returns to the point guard position with much improved ball handling and passing skills. Sophomore, Monica McNeil rounds off the squad with rebounding and jumping ability.

With new enthusiasm and talent, the Lady Tars fully expect to be threats to their opponents. The team will face a solid and competitive Division II schedule.

1985-86 Rollins College Men's Tennis Team

The 1985-86 Men's Tennis team under the guidance of Norm Copeland looks forward to a great season. This year's captain and leader of the team is Brain Morissey. This is Brain's senior year and he has hopes of making it his best tennis and with his talent it seems assured. Pete Allport, Rick Sherman, Kevin Copeland, Mark Gabriel and the rest of the team add their experience and expertise to the court, to make this year's team one of the strongest.

The KA's like most great underdogs, had no chance against the larger, more heavily favored Phi Delts in the Flag Football Championship.

The Phi Delts anticipated an easy victory as they took charge 20-8 at the half. However, as the second half began to unfold, it was obvious that the KA fraternity had indeed eaten their wheaties. With less than a minute left, Ka held Phi Delt at 22-20.

The Sandspur Bowl was in a Frenzie as Chip Pollack tried to lead his team to the highly sought after championship. His magic fell short as KA buckled down and claimed the prize.

"Rollins and her people are a very special place, a place to be appreciated and marveled at. Before the start of the next 100 years, we should take a step back and take a look at what we have, but not for too long. Time will refuse to stop and we have only a limited chance to be a part of this great institution, [a chance to be in the spotlight."]
